FACED DEATH.

Thrilling Escapes and Daring Doings Marked the Record Antarctic Journey of Discovery's Crew.

FLYING SLIDE ON GLACIER

Short of Provision They Fought Their Way Through Blizzard -Loss of One Man Showed Others They Were on Brink.

LYTTELTON, New Zealand, March 2 The sledging parties of the British antarctic ship Discovery, whose experiences orted by the relief ship Morning on the latter's arrival here, engaged in och hazardous work. The dash southward of Cant. Scott, of the Discovery as a result of which he reached latitud egrees 17 minutes south, was attendd by great hardships and extra strain logs, which all died.

The party had only & month's proviwhen they left the southernmos depot, and therefore it was impossible ntinue southward without inviting isaster. The return journey was most for five days and their progress was seriously impeded by fog. Lieut. Shack-leton burst a blood vessel in one of his lungs and only his pluck pulled him All the Men Aged.

crew of the Discovery are described as having palpably aged, owing to hard living, but they are well and Another party, under Lieut. Barnes returning from a sledge journey toward Cape Crozier when a blizzard struck them ten miles from home Barnes abandoned his tents and sledges and left the dogs to find their own way members of another sledge expe-, under Lieut. Armitage, which weatward, were away fifty-two They attained an attitude of set and descended on an ice slide glacier 3,000 feet below. The de-was perilous.

Owing to the blinding snow Barne two yards ahead. While they were ding a slope one of the party appeared and the members of the on discovered themselves to be edge of a huge precipice.

scent was perilous.

The sledges at one part of the descent covered 1,300 feet in a minute and ten seconds, their occupants hanging on by straps to the backs of the sledges. Lieut, Armitage fell into a crevasse and hung thirty feet below the surface. But for the fact that he was harnessed to the others he would have fallen 2,000 feet. At Cape Adair the Discovery found Boreagrevink's huts in a good state of e were some cases of scurvy dur-e sledge journeys, but they disap-l on the return of the sufferers to

THE ROOSTER IS

Greater New York Democracy Is Officially Recognized and Its Title to Emblem Is Assured

There is great glee among the rank and file of the Greater New York Democracy. The redoubtable "Joe" Mulroney, of the banner Twenty-second ably District, is particularly jubi-

President Cantor was informed by the Secretary of State to-day that the organization is now officially recognized as a party, having polled at least 10,000 votes at the last election, and this deon entitles the organization to its much vaunted emblem, the rooster.

ASBURY PARK LAUNCHED.

New Central Boat Will Run Between New York and Sandy Hook.

(Special to The Evening World.)
WHAMINGTON, March 28.—The steamor Asbury Park was launched this afternoon at Cramp's ship-yards. Philadelphia. She will ply between New York and Sandy Hook, in the service of the Central Railroad of New Jersey. Miss Mabel Winsor, of Asbury Park, christened the vessel, and Miss Josephine D. Hawkins and Miss Mabel

ENGINEER REED MARRIED.

ler, of No. 132 Union street, Jersey City. have surprised their friends with the amouncement of their marriage on March 1 by the Rev. Gottlieb An-dreal, paster of St. John's G. E. pastor of St. John's G. at his home on Fairview ave Susie Tyrer, a friend of the and Mrs. Andreal were wit-They kept the wedding secret, ald, because they wanted to sur-their friends. They are house-now at No. 132 Union street.

FIGHTING PURLEY WINS LIVERPOOL CUP.

HER MUSICAL HOPES. PICTURE MUST ONLY DISCORD FOR

Troubles of Mrs. Packard, of the New York New Jersey Life Saving Guard. Jost no time, after emerging from Ludlow Conservatory, Which Paved the Way to Charge Against Her Secretary.

Sterner, of No. 204 West Eightieth of misappropriating $43.50 from Mrs. to work for $8 a week. Fred C. Packard, proprietress of the No. 185 West Seventy-ninth street. Mrs Packard wanted to withdraw the com-plaint, alleging that she had been bulldozed into signing it by the court clerk Mrs. Packard is a widow. Her husband conducted the conservatory for years, and when he died she attempted to keep it going. She moved from Elighteenth street to West Seventy-ment to pay $1,700 a year for the prop Much to her surprise the conservatory were aired in the West Fifty-fourth mined to get a secretary to look out for Street Court to-day when Raiph Leech my finances. I employed Mr. Sterner from the Eberhart School. He wanted street, appeared to answer to a charge $10 a week, but I finally persuaded him

Basis of Her Charge.

"Apparently he was a most exemplary young man, but a short time ago I heard that he was spending money. How he could spend money on a salary of $8 a week interested me. Then I dis-covered that he had not paid the Jan-uary gas bill of $43.50 and discharged birs.

sterner promised to come to court today, from her mother. Try as she might she could not squeeze a cent of profit from the business.
"I concluded that I was not a business woman," said Mrs. Packard tointotous living."

Sterner promised to come to court today,
"A business woman never knows who
to trust in business," concluded Mrs.
Packard. "I am sure that I treated his salary every week. I believe that he spent the money for that gas bill in riotous living."

NOW ITS VERY OWN WOMAN KILLED AT WALDORF A MYSTERY.

(Continued from First Page.)

SOME OF THE CLUES THAT MAY HELP TO IDENTIFY WOMAN KILLED IN FRONT OF WALDORF.

Age, thirty years. Height, 5 feet 6 inches. Complexion, dark. Eyes, brown.

Hair, dark brown, slightly streaked with gray. Two false teeth on a half plate in the upper jaw.

Gray crepe de Chine waist, trimmed with white silk. Underwear of linen, initialled Sealskin jacket, cut to figure Black stockings, black shoes

mize 4C, "Alexander's." Black velvet picture hat, large ostrich plumes, "Simpson, Crawford & Simpson."

Tan gloves, size 6 1-4. Necklace of double string of fishskin pearls.

No finger rings, purse or marks of identification.

one the impression that she must have and looking down saw the form of a been suffering from consumption. That woman prostrate beneath his cab.
she wore a sealskin, tight-fitting jacket "She must have darted from between on such a night as last night indicated that her blood was thin and that she he said. "The street in front of me felt the cool night air more than an or- was clear and well lighted. I think she with gray. She looked to be nearly have run right against my wheel, for I forty years of age, although she was saw nothing until I heard her scream.

The shoes, always a good indication of a woman's character, were exceptions of a woman's character, were exceptions for a woman's character, were exceptions of a woman's character, were exceptions for a woman's character were exceptions. Harry E. Reed, a Pennsylvania Railwith buttons, 41-2 in size, and had been dead and ran to the corner to call the into an agreement with John P. Elkin,

Unavoidable, Says Driver.

some of the cabs in toward the curb,' inary person naturally would.

Was in a hurry to cross and jumped out without looking up or down. She must was in a hurry to cross and jumped out was well for the cabman that the Unavoidable, Says Driver.

William Reid, driver of the cab which caused the woman's death, was arraigned in the Jefferson Market Court to-day. He was deeply affected by the acoldent, but claimed it was unavoidable. He is an intelligent young man, who has been employed for some time for who has been employed for some time by William Seich, who has the cab by William Seich, who has been employed for some time by William Seich, who has the cab by William Seich, who has the cab by rights of privacy," says the Justice, "but get out. the Court of Appeals has repudiated the doctrine that the wights of privacy has doctrine that the nights of privacy has any existence in law or is enforcable in equity. It is settled for the State, at least, that any invasion of one's rights to be let alone can only be remedied by a statutory enactment directed to the particular case.

To Cure Crip in 2 Days & My Grove tox 250

STAY IN GALLERY

"Doc" Owen Fails to Force Po- o'clock to-night. lice to Remove Photograph from Rogues' Collection.

sending the photograph and measure them at Headquarters) is a libel and nothing more and cannot be enjoined. "He must seek his remedy at law."

That is, he must sue ex-Commissi Partridge for damages for taking the dcture by force, and may sue Commissioner Greene and Inspector Mc Clusky for damages for libelling him by keeping and exhibiting the picture

OUT OF LUDLOW AND INTO MATRIMONY

Commodore Ferry, Freed of a Little Matter of Alimony, Goes to Jersey for Another Wife.

Street Jail, in marrying another woman The Commodore, who is young, dashing and handsome, served three months in Ludlow to escape paying his divorced wife alimony at the rate of $25 per week He got out yesterday and to-day rove up to Justice Duffy, on Montgomery street, Jersey City, in an auto mobile, along with Miss Blanche Helen Gleason, a beautiful blonde-haired young woman, who was swathed in liamonds and a purple gown.

y "We want to get married," said the I nautical dandy, "married quick." "Well, I'm just the man," said Duffy and in three minutes all was over. Edward Hayes and Miss Marion Cruikcovered that he had not paid the January gas bill of $43.50 and discharged him.

"My lawyer, Mr. Sweetzer, advised that I get a warrant. I guess Mr. Sterner heard of it, for he got out of the way. Then his lawyer, Mr. Goeller, called on me and asked me to drop the case, saying they would settle it. I wanted to do it, because all I wanted was my money, but Mr. Sweetzer advised that I keep on, and at last Mr.
Sterner promised to come to court today.

"A business woman never knows who
to trust in business," concluded Mrs.

"A business woman never knows who
to trust in business," concluded Mrs.

Englewood Press Gives the Wedding of Times's Editor.

(Special to The Evening World.)
BOGOTA, N. J., March 28.—'The Englewood Press secured a distinct 'beat' over its rival, the Englewood Times, to-day by publishing the story of the secre wedding of Jacob F. Blankenhorn, the editor of the Times, which occurred in the Little Church Around the Corner, New York, Nov. 26 last.

daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Odell. of Martin place, Englewood. The cere mony was performed by Rev. Dr The funny thing about the elopement is the fact that one of the witnesses Charles Lebright, a newspaper reporter also missed the story. Editor Blankenhorn's mother didn't know of the wedding till she saw it in the Press.

LONE PINE MINING CO. MEETS IN HARMONY

Burf, both of Asbury Park, were maids of honor. Mrs. Bruce S. Keator, wife of Acting Mayor Keator, of Asbury Park, was their chaperon.

The shoes, always a good indication of the shoes, always a good indication of the shoes, always a good indication of the street and raised her up.

Saw nothing until I heard her scream. Company met to-day in Cooper Union, at the call of the old directors, who allege that the meeting of two weeks ago of friends of Dr. Richard C. Flow-might wear.

The shoes, always a good indication dressed, but she looked so pitful with the call of the old directors, who allege that the meeting of two weeks ago of friends of Dr. Richard C. Flow-might wear.

The shoes, always a good indication dressed, but she looked so pitful with of Indiana, Pa., for the sale to him of all the claims which the Lone Pine Dend Tramp Petrified.

WHITE PLAINS, March 2.—à local undertaker to whom the body of a tramp found dead on the Harlem Railroid was turned over by Corner Russell two months ago, pending an i quest, is still unbutied. The undertaker used in the wembalm in fluid which caused the building, the view of garbage cans, which, it is asserted, are stored in the yards of a cab company on Portybody to petrify.

TALKS OF STRIKES. CELTIC'S ENGINE Would You Banish Dangerous THE AIR IS FULL OF

(Continued from First Page.)

The meeting began at 10 o'clock. the guards predominated. They held an indignation meeting among themselves outside the hall before proceedings began and denounced the Executive Committee. There was a lot of loud talk-Supreme Court Justice Leventritt to-day denied the motion of Charles L. Some one got frightened, and an extra sponse to a summons from President Hoffman for an injunction forbidding force of policemen was sent over from Commissioner Greene and the Police Dette East One Hundred and Twenty-

Rogues Gallery. Owen is the man who played poker with the Earl of Rossiyn on an ocean steamer.

Bryan has had a fair chance to look who went in unannounced heard a big, into matters and decide what he thinks "He (Owen) seeks to prevent publica- red-whiskered man talking strike at the he can do about the nine-hour proposiion of the picture as an invasion of his top of his lungs. They were invited to tion,

Leaders Council Moderation.

may have a chance to vote. The bal- shut up. He hopes to smooth the lots will not be counted until after 11 trouble over and get them what they want without having any strike, but the guards seem really eager for

Herman Robinson, a national organ izer of the American Federation of Labor, who organized the Manhattan employees, returned to the city las

He has great influence with the mer partment from keeping Jacob, otherwise "Doc." Owen's picture in the Rogues Gallery. Owen is the man who guards insist that they are going to

"The injury, if any, to the plaintiff's ERIE'S NEW WAGE RATE character and reputation by publication NEW WAGE RATE SATISFIES ENGINEERS. The first berg, whileh was in latitude 50.20, was 125 feet high and nearly 300 feet across the base. Down to the smallest detail its formation was that of a gigantle polar and the engineers in its employ.

pany," said General Manager Willard pleasant nature.

"We have not yet estimated just men and their representatives have alwhat the changes will cost the com- ways been satisfactory and of the most pany," said General Manager Willard to-day. "The engineers are satisfied, and so are we.

"Our aim has been to pay as good wages as other roads similarly situated, and there has been no misunderstanding or frotion. A. B. Youngson, Assistant the terms of the schedule agreed upon.

LOWELL MILLS SHUT OUT 20,000 WHO WOULD STRIKE.

(Special to The Evening World.) LOWELL, Mass., March 28 .- A com plete shutdown of work in the eight large cotton mills here on Monday, was ordered by the mili agents to-day. Twenty thousand hands will be idle until the controversy over the demand for a 10 per cent, increase in wages is ended. The shutdown came as a surprise and anticipated the action of the workers, who had stated that they were ready had been received from Secretary Mcgranted.

The announcement of the closing of the mills was made by Mr. Southworth, secretary of the agents, in the statement: "After the meeting of the agents in the Union Bank to-day the corporation managers have thought best to abandon Monday, as the result of a canvass yesterday afternoon.

"It is understood that nearly every man in certain departments stated that he would not come in, although many did so with an explanation that while they would prefer to work they dared not stand out against their comrades. Accordingly notices of indefinite closing were posted at the mill gates before noon to-day."

These notices differed in form but The increase of wages asked by the noon to-day."

These notices differed in form, but not substance. That at the Massato-day, it is considered useless to atempt to run the mills longer, as had been intended.

"Spinning and spooling departments will be paid at the office Thursday afternoon beginning at 2 o'clock; picking, carding and dressing on Friday morning beginning at 8 o'clock; weav ing Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock." Mr. Southworth said the formal notice

Donald, of the Textile Council, that a strike was contemplated before the vote of the mill agents for a complete shut He added that if the labor unions hought an attempt to start the mills would be made in a fortnight they were mills closed until they are convinced that the operatives wish to return.

ployees out.

The increase of wages asked by the operatives is a renewal of the demand made a year ago and which was withdrawn at the request of the business

RIVAL NEWSPAPER. GIRL STRIKERS VIOLENT; PASSAIC POLICE CHARGE THEM Inglewood Press Gives the World the Story of the Secret Siris on a strike at the Universe of a strike at the Universe of the Story of the Secret Siris on a strike at the Universe of the Story of the Secret Siris on a strike at the Universe of the Story of the Secret Siris on a strike at the Universe of the Story of the Secret Siris on a strike at the Universe of the factory. GRIEF CAUSED HER SUICIDE. Mrs. Ochler Mourned for Son Who was and I can say to-day that it has helped me so much that I am doing my own work, something I never expected to do. I do not think I would be allowed and the Story of the Secret Siris on a strike at the Universe of the disappear-old son four weeks ago, Mrs. Marie Ochler, of No. 75 Thirty-seventh street, Brooklyn, committed suicide in her house of the disappear-old son four weeks ago, Mrs. Marie Ochler, of No. 75 Thirty-seventh street, Brooklyn, committed suicide in her house of the disappear-old son four weeks ago, Mrs. Marie Ochler, of No. 75 Thirty-seventh street, Brooklyn, committed suicide in her house of the disappear-old son four weeks ago, Mrs. Marie Ochler, of No. 75 Thirty-seventh street, Brooklyn, committed suicide in her house of the disappear-old son four weeks ago, Mrs. Marie Ochler, of No. 75 Thirty-seventh street, Brooklyn, committed suicide in her house of the disappear-old son four weeks ago, Mrs. Marie Ochler, of No. 75 Thirty-seventh street, Brooklyn, committed suicide in her house of the disappear-old son four weeks ago, Mrs. Marie Ochler, of No. 75 Thirty-seventh street, Brooklyn, committed suicide in her house of the disappear-old son four weeks ago, Mrs. Marie Ochler, of No. 75 Thirty-seventh street, Brooklyn, committed suicide in her house of the disappear of the disappe

(Special to The Evening World.)

PASSAIC, N. J., March 28.—The 200 girls on a strike at the Heller & Long handkerchief factory, Bloomfield avenue, Passaic, surrounded the doors of the mill to-day, armed with sticks and stones which they waved and shook at

28 KILLED IN STRIKE RIOT IN RUSSIAN IMPERIAL MINES

ST. PETERSBURG, March 28.-A fifty others were wounded. great strike riot, accompanied by much bloodshed, has occurred at the town of Slatousk, in the government of Oofa, among the Ural mountains.

Twenty-eight persons were killed and Slatousk is the chief town of a mining district and is the centre of the Southern Imperial mines. It has iron works and an extensive manufactory of damasked scimitars and articles of inlaid and embosed site. Slatousk has an altitude of 1,843 feet and contains a population of about 21,000.

Twenty-eight persons were killed and MRS MOLINEUX

MAY GO ON STAGE. She is Seen in This City, Where,

Rumor Says, She Signed a

Theatrical Contract.

Mrs. Blanche Molineux was in New York yesterday, and there is a persistent rumor that she has signed a contract to appear on the stage as soon as she obtains a divorce in South Dakota. Mrs. Molineux lunched with a party of friends served by a number of old acquaint-

FENCE TO BE 75 FEET HIGH, the Saxon Government.

Boohm & Coon Get Permit to Shu Of View of Garbage Cans.

Superintendent of Buildings Perez M Stowart has approved the amended Plans submitted to him by the architect of Boehm & Coon to erect on the rear lot line of their new five-story office build-ing, at Nos. 538 and 540 Fifth avenue, a

CONSUL COLE SENDS REGRETS TO SAXONS.

Gave Dentist O'Brien Certificate Help Him Here, and Meant No Insult to the Government.

DRESDEN, Saxony, March 28,-United States Consul Cole has, according to a note published by the Dresdener Journal, expressed his regret to Premier Metssch von Reichenbach for giving Dr. O'Brian, the American dentist who was recently expelled from Saxony, a certificate expressing sym-pathy with him and reflecting on the She was in New York only a short time. Late in the afternoon she was driven to the Grand Central station and started on her return to Sioux Falls.

Saxony, a certificate expressing sympathy with him and reflecting on the Saxon Government.

Consul Cole explained that he gave the certificate to O'Brian to help him in the certificate to O'Brian to help him is America and had no idea of insulting

To Look Well

your blood must be pure to give your complexion that peculiar freshness which can only be obtained when your system is in good working order. Beecham's Pills will cut you in condition

Beechams Pills

WAS DISABLED.

Liner Had Eventful Voyage and Saw Giant Icebergs Formed Like Crouching Bear and Rock of Gibraltar.

MGR. O'CONNELL ON BOARD.

of exciting experiences at sea to report, subject, arise from weak and inflamed On March 24 the high pressure valve nerves, heavy and dull brain, poor circu-of her port engine blew out with a lation and debility. Bilious headaches are great roar of steam that for a time threw her passengers into a panic. For nearly two days the ship ran under one engine while repairs were being made. On the day before the accident the Celtie ran by two huge icebergs, passing within a few hundred yards of each. The first berg, which was in latitude bear, crouching as if about to spring. The passengers had not done discuss A new schedule was agreed upon at grand Chief of the Brotherhood of Lo-yesterday's conference between the of-ficials of the Brie Railroad Company conference yesterday, as the men want-ficials of the Brie Railroad Company conference yesterday, as the men wanted his advice. Our relations with the raltar. It was a simple thing then to bear crouching to spring upon the British fortress.

Mgr. O'Connell on Board. The most distinguished passenger of the Celtic was Mgr. B. J. O'Connell, who has been appointed rector of the Catholic University at Washington. Mgr. O'Connell has been in Rome since 1885. Up to seven years ago he was rector of the American College at Rome. The distinguished prelate is a man of medium size and, though reticent almost to the point of taciturnity, he has a most engaging personality. He simply bubbles over with genlalty, which is demonstrated more in his manner than A score or more members of the Catholic priesthood were waiting for Mgr. O'Connell at the pier, among them the Rev. J. S. Delany, representing Archbishop Farley, with an invitation from the Archbishop for the visitor to spend three days at the archdiocean residence. At the conclusion of his visit here he will go to Charleston, S. C., to see his to weak and sick people an immediate parents, and thence to Washington. supply of nerve force, with pure blood, Others at the pier were the Rev. Dr. active liver and perfect digestive vigor. Edmund P. Shannon, dean of the theolege, and the Rev. B. J. Hayes, Presidiscase and permanently banishes the dent of the Alumni of the American trouble. Mrs. Darley, Franklin, Ill., says: University at Rome and of the Catholic University at Washington. He was accompanied by the Rev. Patrick Gavin, chancelor of the archdiocese of Baltimore, and extended an invitation from Cardinal Gibbons to visit him in Baltimore. Mrs. Darley, Franklin, Ill., Says: "After trying in vain several remedies for headache I began using Paine's Celery Compound. This great medicine not only cured me, but it built up my system and made me feel like a new Cardinal Gibbons to visit him in Baltimore.

Monsignor O'Con'ell was born in Charleston, S. C., fifty-five years ago. He was graduated from St. Charles College, Eilicott City, Md., and then went to Rome, where he attended the American College for four years. He was ordained a priest in May, 1877, by Cardinal Apsiza.

When asked for a statement he simply said: "I have come here to learn."

system and made me feel like a new woman. It is the only medicine we keep in the house."

Mrs. Benjamin Perry, of North Aurelius, Mich., says: "Paine's Celery Compound is the best medicine on earth. Three years ago I was taken with inflammation of the bladder and nervous prostration, and was drinking two ounces of carbolic acid.

Art for World's Fair.

She was found dead on the floor of her kitchen by her sixteen-year-old daughter Ida. An empty bottle lay beside her.
Dr. J. Wachman, who was called in,

THE COP FELT HURT.

He Arrested the Man Who Of fered Him 25 Cents.

Pasquale Ganelli, a bootblack, wa Tombs Court to-day on a charge of at-tempting to bribe a police officer. tempting to bribe a police officer. Ganelli was one of a large number of bootblacks who applied at the Bureau of License in the City Hall to-day for licenses to have bootblack stands in front of public buildings. He arrived late and found himself at the end of a long line. He went to Roundsman Kavanagh and offered him 25 cents if he would be placed at the head of the line. He was promptly arrested by Kavanagh.

Magistrate Pool held him in $500 bail for trial.

Away with Catarrh! It's Loathsome, It's Disgusting. nstant Relief and Permanent Cure Secured by the Use of Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder.

Here's strong evidence of the quickness and surenes of that wonderful remedy, Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder: "For years I was a victim of Chronic Catarrh-4ried many remedies, but no cure was effected until I had procured and used Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder. First application gave me instant relief, and in an incredibly short while I was absolutely cured."—James Headley, Dundee, N. Y. 11 Dr. Agnew's Heart Oure relieves in 30 minutes.

Antringent Anticoptic Alterative and the second for the second for Spring Headache?

Try Nature's Cure, PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND,

And You Will Quickly Rejoice in a New Life.

While headaches are varied in character and are produced by a variety of causes, the majority of victims suffer either from nervous or bilious headache. When neglected, either form will quickly cause The White Star liner Celtic arrived in prostrate the system. Nervous head-port to-day a day late, with a chapter aches, to which women are specially

MRS. BENJ. PERRY.
Aurelius, Mich.—A Life Saved When Doctors Had given Her Up.
y accompanied by sickness and vomiting. They result from inactive liver, digestive disturbances or sore and constipated bowels.

In the springtime able and experienced physicians urge upon those who are sub-ject to headaches the use of Paine's Celery Compound. In tens of thousands of cases this wonderful remedy has produced happy and permanent results after all other modes of treatment failed. Unlike other medicines claiming popular attention, Paine's Celery Compound gives prompt and effective results. It gives logical faculty at Washington; Dr. D. is not a simple relieving of pain; it effec-W. Shea, general secretary of the col- tually reaches the root and causes of system and made me feel like a new der and nervous prostration, and was very sick, under the doctor's care, and Halsey C. Ives, the Director-in-Chief of the Department of Art of the St.

Louis Exposition, also arrived on the Ceitic. He has been abroad since Jupe is negotiating for foreign exhibits in the Art Building at the World's Fair.

Yery sick, under the doctors care, and they all thought I could not live.

"I was so sick I could not help myself, and hardly sat up long enough to have my bed made, but I heard of Paine's Celery Compound and commenced taking it and I can say to-day that it has

TIME TRIED 25cs

VALUE PROVED Bottle

Asthma, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Deafness, Consumption Free Examination Daily. 10 to 7; Sundays, 11 to 2 119 W. 22d St. SOF. ECCH OF BERLINAt corner Ehrich Store, SAT.

DIED.

DOYLE .- Friday, March 27, 1908, KATIE, be-Functal from her late residence, 187 East Nineticth street, Monday, March 30, at S P. M. Interment in Calvary Cometery.

Laundry Wants-Female.

LAUNDRESS Wanted experienced bosom shirt ironer on Hagen machine. Standard Laundry, 1169 Bedford avenue, Brooklyn. Honer on Hegen machine. Standard Launder, 1169 Bedford avenue, Brooklyn.

GIRLS WANTED. Call all week, Wood's Steam Launder, 68 Clarkson st.

GIRLS WANTED for hand and machine Froning, with or without experience. Pilgrein Steam Launder, Co., 68 to 92 dd st., Brooklyn.

LAUNDRESS Good woman to help on napking and towels: 44. Royal, 276 6th avs.

LAUNDRY HELP—Forewoman for mangle dispersional for collar fronting department, one who understands dampening and E. 1850 st., near 2d ave. bridge.

Laundry Wants-Male